“ When I was a kid, I was best friends with one of his grandkids. My home life wasn't good, and Mr. Bobby Dean never made me feel like a burden for coming over for a hot meal and conversation. This man gave me the most meaningful advice (and even some constructive criticisms) that made me a strong young person. His hard-working spirit and his huge heart was inspiring. I hope his memory lives on for a long time.

“ there was not a time that he would come and Tommy's and have everyone laughing. About something he spoke his mind and he would tell you what was on his mind and even the days that he wasn't feeling good he was still trying to beat your He will be missed.RIP Bobby dean
