

Mr. Buster Everett Carr

May 2, 1935 - September 21, 2014

Buster Everett Carr, 79, of DeWitt died September 21, 2014. He was born May 2, 1935, in DeWitt to Winston Gray Carr and Eula Mae Scroggins. He was a retired carpenter, a Mason, and a member of the VFW, Senior Citizens Center, and Unity Missionary Baptist Church.

Buster was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife, Freda Modlin Carr; and two brothers Donnie and Wayne Carr.

Survivors include his wife, Gladys Theis Carr; three children, Michael Carr (Patricia) of Redfield, Sabrina Cooper (Barry) of Almyra, Carla (Chuck) Allen of Maumelle; two stepchildren, John Theis (Suzanne) of Sherwood and Roger Theis (Marcia) of DeWitt; five grandchildren Brent Carr, Bethany Wingerter (Matt), Slade Stroh (Tiffany), Stahley Seeman (Shane), and Gunner Allen; three step grandchildren Lauren Sullivan (Dustin), Hannah Lee (Tyler) and Adam Theis (Donna); seven great grandchildren; and four sisters Kay Burtram of DeWitt, Marlene Lee of Barton, Sue Weddle of DeValls Bluff, and Vicky Little of Benton.

Funeral services were September 23 at Unity Missionary Baptist Church with burial in Forks LaGrue Cemetery. essexfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

SC

“ Sending our love and prayers to all the family! Praying for you all! We loved Buster and he always had something to say or a joke! Fun loving guy enjoyed being around him! He will be missed by many!

---

Sandra and Larry Childers - April 27, 2018 at 01:27 PM

MC

“ Buster Carr was a great father, he was a hard working man and taught me a lot life lessons. Daddy had a lot of good friends and was loved by the ones who knew him. He was a great man in my eyes.

---

Michael Carr - April 27, 2018 at 01:27 PM