“ Carl was on the farm next to our family's farm when I was born and when I left the farm in 1983. I worked with him long enough to know that a simple life is the best. I count the memories a blessing and offer blessings to all the family.

“ Carl helped on our family farm and my memory of Carl is he always had a smile on his face! Such a sweet man. When I would ride my bike down the road, if he was plowing in the field, he would wave every time he was at my end of the road! My condolences and prayers for the family.

“ I have many memories of Carl and they are all happy! He was always smiling and seemed glad to see me. I remember Carl and Henry often having lunch with our family during the busy summer season. God bless him and your family in your loss.
