“ Don, my neighbor and dear friend, you made it! You are now with the Lord you always praised. No more pain, no more suffering or disability. You are now whole as we discussed many times. You enriched the lives of many by your kindness and decency including mine. Yes you are gone, but you will never be forgotten!! Enjoy your forever with Our Lord and your family who had been waiting for you. May Our Lord bless your family here. Pat Hanson, Little Rock

“ Donald David was the most shining example of humility, respect, and a faithful human as possible.. He was honest, loyal and dependable despite the many obstacles he faced in his life. He just accepted his fate and his life and gave it his all. I knew him since he was two and don't think he ever thought of anything but being a good son, good brother, good nephew and cousin to all. He was an inspiration to anyone who knew him and he will certainly leave an impact on all of us to see life as he saw it. Simple. He loved Gomer Pyle and Elvis Presley music. He loved his dog and his daughter. He will be so missed and I talked to him the last few years at least once a week, just because he was so lonely and he needed someone to listen and know we heard him. God Bless Donald and now, he is whole. Love forever, your Aunt Barbara.

“ I was Donald's pastor when he started attending our church, Second Baptist, downtown Little Rock, in the late 1990s/early 2000s. Donald attended his Bible Study Class and Worship every Sunday morning where he sat on the third row on the center aisle seat, dressed proudly in an eye-catching suit and tie. He was more dependable than a calendar. He found a church family at Second, and we found a beloved friend in Donald. I don't remember how he found us, but I'm glad he did, and we grieve his passing and will miss him.

Donald was part of our church family at Second Baptist Church, Downtown and I always looked forward to the Spring season when he would start wearing those beautifully colored suits. He was very faithful to attend church and he will be missed. 💜🙏🕊️

“ Donald was one of the kindest and gentlest spirits I have ever known. I never heard him say an unkind thing about anyone. He will be missed greatly.

“ I knew Donald while working at the airport. For over 20 years, he had to be the hardest working person there. Very loyal to his job, never complained, just did his job. Will think about always. RIP Donald. Your friend, Steve Losey, Tucson Az
