“ So sad for our family that Uncle Donnie has left us but rejoice to know he is the very presence of his loving Saviour! What he for many years believed by faith, he now knows by SIGHT! He was blessed with a long, happy life. I know Perry rejoiced to welcome his Dad to his forever home, along with other loved ones including my Mother-in-law, Nancy White Henderson. Uncle Donnie was very special to me and treated me as one of the family as soon as Nannette and I started dating. I was a poor college kid and he bought me many a meal at the Red Pump in Stuttgart and a ticket to any gospel singing we attended before I was a part of the family, just as if I already was in the family. Rest in love, Uncle Donnie and prayers for your loved ones. "Look for me...for I will be there, too."

“ Prayers for peace to all family and friends of Mr. Donnie. Delma graciously shared him with my Grandmother, Ora Lee Inman, for many years as a fishing buddy and they shared many stories throughout the years. I bet they're baiting their hooks today.
