“ Chaney and I were in Boy Scouts together and in the First Christian Church youth group led by Gary Morning between 1965 and 1967. We hiked, camped, and floated the Arkansas River with Scoutmaster Joe Shakelford who was also our algebra teacher. Years later, when Chaney lived and practiced in the geodesic dome in Walnut Ridge, we canoed the Eleven Point River together. He was a good friend who talked about getting married every time we visited, but never did! You left us too soon. Dr. Don Ott; Russellville, AR
