Born on March 5, 1940, in St. Charles, Arkansas, she was the only child of Everett and Marianna Reed. Glenda Faye grew up on the family farm in St. Charles and graduated from DeWitt High School. She furthered her education at Henderson State University. Glenda Faye was a devoted member of DeWitt Methodist Church, where she cherished her strong relationship with the Lord and enjoyed spending time with friends. Her generous spirit was evident in the way she cared for those around her. Glenda Faye's greatest joys were her family, her friends, and the land she grew up on. As an only child, she was extremely dedicated to her parents, and this unwavering devotion was passed down to her daughter, Terri. Family meant the world to Glenda Faye, and she treasured every moment spent with her loved ones. Her favorite pastimes included working on word searches, watching cowboy movies and hearing stories of her beloved little cousins and chosen grandchildren. Glenda Faye's friends were like family to her, and she was adored by many as a sister, mother, and grandmother.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Everett and Marianna Reed, grandparents William T. "Pete" and Annie Fly and Robert and Vera Reed.

Glenda Faye is survived by her daughter, Terri Lynn Patton of DeWitt; her son, Tom Patton of Booneville, and his children, Kaitlyn, Tommy, and Grace; her favorite sister-in-law, Linda Patton of Van Buren; her nieces Janet Cheaves (John) of Lexington, Kentucky and Amy Rudolph

“ I was so sad to see this. Glenda was one of a kind. She always acted tough but she was a sweet lady with a big heart. She will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.
