“ *McCann family,
I always enjoyed being around Mr. McCann. He made me feel welcome in his home and when we were hunting. He always had some wisecracks and comments to make me smile. I respect him very much for his service in the military and to the community. My condolences to the family,
Gary Stephenson*

“ To the McCann family, Please accept our deepest condolences in the passing of Mr. James. He was a pleasure to talk to and having grown up in St. Charles, I got to talk with him a lot. He learned I first joined the military and we talked for several hours about it. He just loved to see young men and women join the military, the same military he dedicated 30 years to. I had not visited with him in several years, but I can still see him smiling and riding his bike. Mrs. Hazel, you are in our thoughts and prayers along with the rest of the family.

“ My deepest sympathy in your father's passing George, Jamie and Buzz; and to your Mom. I have loving and special memories of your Dad. He had such a warm wonderful smile, so quick to always share it, along with his loving and caring spirit. It was indeed an honor and privilege to know him.
