“ My wife and I regret your pain in losing Jonathan. We too have lost adult sons and can assure you as intense as the pain is now, the passage of time will allow you to think more on the good times with Jonathan and less on his loss. We have learned that each person grieves differently and in a different time frame. We are of the Christian faith and our belief was that God would carry us through the valley of the shadow of death, and He did. It is always good to hear people remember and name the one you've lost. Jonathan will not be forgotten by friends and I hope they'll share their memories of him with you.

“ Lisa,

There are no words to express how sad I am that you have lost Jonathan. I know that he was the light of your life and what a great mom you were to him. My prayer is for God to wrap his Grace around you now and in to the days to follow.

Love you,

Betty
