“ I always thought a lot of Mr. Carl! He was a good, kind, honest hardworking man. I remember how he would often stop at the old Church’s Chicken place on the corner and get Mrs. Freeman an ice cream bucket of crushed ice. It was such a sweet, loving thing to do. That is just one of many things that made a positive impression on me.

Carl and Mildred were our neighbors for many years. Could not have asked for any better. He was also willing to help. Always had something to kid you about. He will be missed.

“ What a great man Mr. Les was. He took a group of "College Boys", as he called us, and tolerated us for summer employment with the Arkansas Highway Department in the mid 70's. He was a great mentor and leader. He had patience with us (when we often did not deserve it) and he put his foot down (when we needed it) to get the job done each day. He was a hard worker and just a really great guy. It was an honor to know him and call him a friend.
