

Mrs. Lillie Nunez Fuhrman

September 23, 1937 - November 10, 2023

Lillie Edna Fuhrman died Friday, November 10, 2023. She was born in Abbeville, Louisiana on September 23, 1937, to Alfreda Mary Decuire and Tilman Andrew Nunez.

She spent her childhood in Abbeville and Perry, Louisiana and loved telling stories of growing up with her sisters and cousins there. The family moved to DeWitt, Arkansas before her senior year of high school and she remained lifelong friends with many of her DHS classmates.

She married Dale Fuhrman in 1956 and moved to Gillett where they raised their family.

Lillie was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church.

She was very involved in the development and operation of Arkansas Post Museum and loved showing visitors the history of the area.

Lillie was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; daughter, Tracey Fuhrman; son-in-law Freddie Perritt; and sisters Judy Nunez, Freda Nunez, and Shirley Bueker.

Survivors include daughter, Kelly Perritt (Danny Russell); sons, Eddie

(Brigette) Fuhrman and Kyle (Frankie) Fuhrman; grandson Alex (Kristy) Perritt; granddaughters Lydia (Nick) Barsotti, Lizzie Fuhrman, Gracie Fuhrman, and Paige Fuhrman; and bonus grandson, Henry Harrison; great grandson, John William Barsotti; and great granddaughters, Lyla Fuhrman and Tillie Perritt.

Visitation will be held Saturday, November 18, 10 am with service following at 10:30 at St. Paul Lutheran Church.

“ Loved her like a mother, this dear daughter, and sister-in-Christ. Loved giving her her Jesus, for a time. I have missed her grouchy love, and sassy sense of humor, but look forward to being with her again, forever, with Dale, Freddie, and many more! Peace to you all, in Jesus our living Savior! We look to, listen to, and receive from Christ such great peace, and hope.
