“Lois's daughter, Sherry Wages, and I were best friends in Junior High in the 60's. I loved to spend the night at her house. We would stay up all night and talk about boys and giggle and Lois would tell us to be quiet! She would drive us around in that Volkswagen she had. I loved her chocolate gravy for breakfast and her Swiss steak. Those were wonderful years and great times. I am praying for the family in the loss of such a sweet lady. I loved her. Sherry please get in touch with me.
