

Mary Christene Campbell

November 4, 1928 - September 6, 2013

Mary Christene Campbell, 84, of Point Deluce, died Sept. 6, 2013, at DeWitt Hospital.

She was born Nov. 4, 1928, in Point Deluce (south of DeWitt), a daughter of the late Edgar Oma Bradberry and Eula Lee Williams Bradberry.

Campbell was retired from General Electric in Cicero, IL, and lived most of her adult life in Point Deluce. She enjoyed making crafts and giving them away to family and friends. She was a long-time member of the Deluce Church of God 7th Day.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Lewis Campbell; two brothers, Jim Bob Bradberry and Guestous Williams Stonecipher; and a sister, Ruby Burris.

Survivors include a daughter, Mary Jane Seamon of Point Deluce; two sons, Terry L. Campbell of Florida and Tim R. Campbell of DeWitt; three brothers, Edgar Dewain Bradberry of Alexander, Craig Donald Bradberry I of DeWitt, and Aubrey Dean Bradberry of Gould; six grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be at 10:30 a.m. Sept. 10, 2013, at Essex Chapel at Essex

Funeral Home in DeWitt with Brother Guy Marley officiating. Burial will be in Hearn Cemetery in DeWitt.

Visitation will be from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Sept. 9, 2013, at Essex Funeral Home