“ Reta was not only a co-worker but truly a caring, sweet friend! Although I only worked with Reta 7 years, she was such an angel to me. She always cared and showed compassion for what was going on, not only in my life but everyone she knew. She was amazing and I love her! I will miss Reta, as so many will, but know that she is out of pain and living free with are Heavenly Father! God Bless, and peace be with her family and friends! Tammy Tilley

“ Rusty, I hope you see this and remember living in McGehee when you were just a little boy. I lived across the street from you, and you and my daughter, Andrea Holt, were such good playmates and friends. I loved your mother and was saddened by the news of her passing. Your dad was a really good man as well. They were both way to young, and I can't imagine how much you miss them. Andrea's dad died in 1993, and I remarried. My name is now Grossmann.
