“ Rita’s birthday is Jan. 19, 1950 and mine is Jan. 22, 1951. Our mother always had our birthday parties together. Rita invited her friends and I invited mine but usually growing up we shared the same friendships. As we grew into teenager/dating age, we doubled dated but the guys never seem to mind that we were sisters. We even went to the prom with our dates together. My sister was fun to be with but she didn’t like for me to wear her clothes. She was a member of The Beatles fan club. OH MY GOODNESS! But The Beach Boys were my favorite. Remember when we moved daddy to DeWitt after mother died. Daddy told Jerry “you didn’t know when you married Connie you would get Rita also. You got two for one”. We enjoyed going to coffee shops together, shopping, visiting family and reunions together. I didn’t get to go on this last trip Dec. 29, 2022 with her but I was honored to be by her side for the great send-off and allowed my love which was deep down inside to travel with her. Heaven just gets sweeter and sweeter. See you later big sister. Remember you’ll always be a year and three days older than me! Well Done good and faithful servant! I love you, Rita from your younger sister Connie
