

Mrs. Thelma Mae Hendrix Henderson

January 8, 1927 - March 4, 2017

Thelma Mae Hendrix Henderson, age 90, of DeWitt stepped out of this life into eternity March 4, 2017. She was born January 8, 1927 in Jonesboro, AR, to Elsie A. Hendrix and Rosie Bobbite Hendrix Poor.

She was a homemaker and member of Forks of LaGrue Missionary Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John J. Henderson; parents; four brothers Calvin Hendrix, Pete Hendrix, Junior Poor, and D.D. Poor; sister Mildred Cupples; and son-in-law James (Bo) Collins.

She is survived by one sister Hazel Hamm (Michale) of Lonoke; one sister-in-law Alice Hendrix of Almyra; five daughters Martha Collins of DeWitt, Willie Howard (Eddie) of Las Vegas, NV, Dorthy Plant of Little Rock, Jean Mannis (Rick) of DeWitt, and Tommie Jo Mannis (Steven) of DeWitt; one son John A. Henderson (Brenda) of DeWitt; 17 grandchildren; 41 great grandchildren; 10 great great grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. She also had many that called her grandmother that were not related to her.

Visitation will be 6-8 p.m. Tuesday, March 7 at Essex Funeral Home. Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 8 at Forks of La Grue Missionary Baptist Church with burial in Thompson Cemetery by Essex Funeral Home. Memorials may be made to Forks of LaGrue Missionary Baptist Church. www.essexfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

PH

“ Grandma I will miss you and love you beyond words. Rest in peace with Grandpa and all the family you must be rejoicing with right now in heaven. Until we meet again... Pat Pat

Patricia Howard-Johnson - April 27, 2018 at 12:54 PM

P(

“ I am going to miss Aunt Thelma but I enjoy the many happy memories going fishing with her, Uncle John and grandma Olie in the summer. If we weren't fishing, we were going to theme parks or caves. She is going to be missed but not forgotten.

Pamela McGee (Harrison) - April 27, 2018 at 12:54 PM