“ Brother Lewis was always there for me. I remember going to talk to him when my Grandma Poor died because my heart hurt so badly and him explaining the bible to me. I was only 11 but I have never forgotten his kindness to a tormented child. I guess that's why he was the only one who I could ever imagine baptizing me. And God allowed that he was the one to do so. We didn't talk often but I always knew I could turn to him for answers and God's comfort if I needed direction. He will be sorely missed.

“ So sorry for your loss. He was a great man and will be missed dearly. Rejoice in knowing he is in heaven with Martha again, and all those other family members who went before him and having a great reunion with them.

“ I will miss Uncle Lewis. He baptized me in the Faith and was one of the the sweetest people to me when my husband, Tracy and I, first moved to DeWitt. Not just because we are family, but that is just the way he was. Will surely be missed.
