

Ms. Wygonda "GG" Gail Brown Duke

October 12, 1939 - February 16, 2021

Wygonda "GG" Gail Brown Duke, 81, passed away February 16, 2021. She was born October 12, 1939 in DeWitt to Oliver and Octavia Bell Brown. Wygonda was a member of Southside Baptist Church in Stuttgart and a busy volunteer throughout the community. She had volunteered with RSVP since 2003. Wygonda was a volunteer at the Museum of the Grand Prairie and was one of the first volunteers at the Grand Prairie Center. Other organizations that she enjoyed volunteering with were the Baptist Hospital Ladies Auxiliary, the food pantry, Stuttgart Chamber of Commerce, and Wings Over the Prairie committee chair since 2003. She served at almost all of the community events. Wygonda is survived by her son Mark Duke and his wife Myra and two grandchildren Haley and Hayden Duke all of Stuttgart. There will be a private family service on February 23 with burial in DeWitt Cemetery by Essex Funeral Home. There will be a celebration of life service at a later date in Stuttgart. Memorials may be made to the Stuttgart Public Library, the Museum of the Grand Prairie, or RSVP.

“ I had the pleasure of volunteering w GG while I worked at RSVP. She was always very professional and accurate. She always had a bright smile. To look at her you would think she was 20 years younger than her age. She will be missed by many in Stuttgart. She volunteered many places and uncountable hours. GG is probley working in heaven now. Mark and Myra she was a jewel. My prayers are with you.
